R Gough
1771

THE

EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

MDCCLX.

VOLUME IV.

Floriferis ut apes in saltibus omnia libant,
Omnia nos.

EDINBURGH:

Printed by WALTER RUDDIMAN junior and COMPANY,
MOROCCO's Close, LAWN-MARKET.

EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

M D C C L X.

VOLUME IV.

EDINBURGH:

Printed by Walter Ruddiman junior and Company,
Nicolson-Square. Law-Printers.

GENERAL CONTENTS for 1760.

JANUARY.

ESSAY on the origin and progress of preaching (cont.) 1
Of the penitents in the Magdalen-house 5
Description of Lower-Silesia 8
Elogy on M. Saxe 11
On the education of a mechanic 14
On the severity of the present war 16
Moral reflexions on the new-year 18
Seneca on the importance of time 20
Of the origin and design of cards 21
Life of William Andrew Horne, Esq; 22
On the different schools of music 24
Reasons for and against the distillery 26
Letter from Bajazet II. to Pope Alexander 28
Characters of some eminent French writers 29
On the insolence of the Emperor of Morocco 30
Account current between King George II. and Lewis XV. 32

POETICAL ESSAYS.

Ode on the year 1759 33
——for the year 1760 ib
Verses on the last campaign 34
The man of Kent ib
Ode to Gen. Wolfe 35
On the dispute about his birth ib
Epigram on the French King ib
The happy fire-side ib
Epitaph on Mrs M—n—sh 36
An acrostic on Miss C———n ib
To Miss —— Hamilton ib
Song in the Way to keep him ib

HISTORY.

Czarina's answer to the overtures of peace 39
Operations of the French and allies 40
Act of abdication of the Two Sicilies 42
Affairs in France and Holland 45
———in America ib
Adm. Hawke's engagement with M. Conflans 49
M. Conflans' account of it 50
Distress of Adm. Broderic's squadron 52
Affairs in Scotland; of vails, &c ib
Captures, marriages, births, and deaths 54

FEBRUARY

ON the antiquity of bells and their uses 64
Da Costa's letter to the trustees of the British museum 67
Account of the forest of Lebanon 69
Excellent advice of a hermit 70
Life of Henry Pr. of Wales (cont.) 71
Patents no proofs of superior merit 75
History and improvement of the stage 76
Case relative to the distemper among horses 78
Method of curing that distemper 79
Advantages of a sincere love to our country ib
Effectual remedy for the gout, palsy, &c 80
Method to dye cloth of a fine sea-green colour 81
How to raise fine radish salad in winter ib
The water-dock, a medicine for the scurvy ib
Remarkable case of Lord Stourton 83
Reflexions on M. Thurot's expedition 85
History of Hacho; a moral tale 85
Anecdotes relative to the battle of Quebec 85
An account of a white moor 87
An uncommon instance of martial ardour 88

POETICAL ESSAYS

Spring 89
A new Free-mason's song ib
Prologue and epilogue to Aquileia 90
The unhappy fire-side ib
To contentment 91
To honest Ranger ib
The bower 92
To the memory of Mr. Samuel M'Arthur ib
The power of virtue ib

HISTORY.

Defeat of Manteuffel and Czetteritz 94
De la Clue's account of his defeat 95
Account of a dreadful earthquake 96
Treaty of peace with the Cherokees 97
A desperate action of Lord Ferrers 99
Affairs in Scotland 101
Particulars of M. Thurot's expedition 102
Captures on both sides 107
Marriages, births, and deaths 108
New books, with remarks and extracts 109

MARCH

VIEW of the new theatrical pieces 114
An affecting instance of parental affection 124
Essay on the proper employments for women 126
Advantages of an equality among mankind 128
A remarkable voyage to the south sea (cont) 131
Moral reflexions on the spring 133
Particulars of the life of M. Thurot 136
Reflexions on the proposals for a peace 138
Cure for the distemper among horses 141
Idea of an English academy 143
Old Plunket's receipt for curing the cancer ib

POETICAL ESSAYS.

De morte: Soliloquium 145
Verses occasioned by Gen. Wolfe's death ib
Epitaph on M. Thurot 146
On the death of Mr. J. Gay ib
Song: To the tune of Molly Mogg 147
Stations of the poets in the shades below ib
An address to Orra 148
On the image of Cupid; an epigram ib

HISTORY

The Prussians surprized at Neustadt 151
Motions of the French and allies 153
Petrified human bodies discovered near Aix, 154
Procession at the Prs Caroline's marriage 155
Affairs in the East-Indies 156
———in America 157
Gov. Lyttleton's speech to Attakullakulla ib
Affairs in England 160
———in Ireland 161
———in Scotland 162
Captures by the British and French 163
Marriages, births, deaths, &c 164
Promotions, and new books, with extracts 166

APRIL

An Archbishop of Vienna's pastoral letter 165
Description of the kingdom of Bohemia, 169
Life of Empedocles the philosopher 172
Of the characters and dispositions of women 176
The theatre candidly considered 178
Improprieties in the education of youth 180
Abstract of the trial of Lord Geo. Sackville 181
Brief account of the family of Earl Ferrers 187
Extraordinary cure by Malvern waters 188
Vindication of Bothwel in Darnley's murder 193
Advice on the marriage of children ib
Surprizing metamorphosis of a boy 195
Ortogrul, an eastern tale, on happiness 198
Life of George Frederic Handel, Esq; (cont.) 199

POETICAL ESSAYS.

Liberia to Althea, an epistle 201
To a clergyman and his spouse 202
Pandora ib
The Junto 203
Ode in praise of military bravery ib
Translation of Horace, ode iv. book ii. ib
To the memory of Capt. Thurot 104
Mutidem breve epitaphium ib
Sappho; Frag. v. On the rose ib
Speech of Venus on the death of Adonis ib

HISTORY.

Affairs in Germany 209
——In Spain, Holland, and America 211
Outrages committed by the Cherokees 212
Affairs in England 214
Pr. Ferdinand's letter on the conduct of Ld G. Sackville 215
Trial, and execution of Earl Ferrers 216
Affairs in Scotland 217
Marriages, births, and deaths 218
Civil, naval, and military promotions 220
New books, with remarks and extracts 221

MAY

Description of Prague, (cont.) 225
Lord Salisbury's directions to his son 234
Dialogue between Mercury, an English duellist, and a North American savage 235
Grand Signior's challenge to the Emperor 237
Of modern love and gallantry 239
History of Alcanor and Eudosia 241
Expedience of making divorces more easy 244
Method of curing a spunk 247
Cure of a confirmed melancholy ib
Particulars of the life of Earl Ferrers 249
A dream 255
Reflections on the study of flowers 256
Particulars of the life of Jane Shore 258
A remonstrance to the ladies on dress 259

POETICAL ESSAYS

On the avarice and impertinence of servants 261
Advice from a young lady to her friend 262
A poetical epistle to Miss —— ib
To the memory of a Pitchire gentleman 263
The fisherman and little fish ib
To Philomel 264
The first pair ib
Latin epigram on a hare ib
The same imitated ib
Epigram on two lords ib

HISTORY.

Position of the several armies in Germany 265
Difference between the court of Rome and Genoa 267
Affairs in the East-Indies ib
Adm. Pocock's engagement with M. d'Ache 269
Affairs in America 271
—— in England 272
—— in Scotland 274
Marriages, births, and deaths 275
Civil and military promotions 276
New books, with remarks and extracts 277

JUNE.

THE art of persuasion (cont.) 281
Method of discovering the longitude 285
Remarkable patience of a common soldier 292
Cruelty exercised on prisoners for debt 295
Concerning the origin of Olympus 297
Parallel between Shakespeare and Corneille 300
A description of the parish of Kildrumy 303
Effects of the miseries of human life 305
Various thoughts on various subjects 307
Remedy for a lameness from a contraction of the muscles 308
Invention of a new instrument of music 309
Corylas and Ismena, a pastoral tale 310
A cure for the rot in sheep 312

POETICAL ESSAYS.

Progress of Cupid in search of Venus 313
New epilogue to Phormio ib
To a lady with a box of butterflies 314
Fifth fragment of Highland poetry verified ib
The lily of the vale 315
On a young lady ib
On the death of a young gentleman ib
A new species of an acrostic 316
Epigram on two naval victories 317
——On two late trials ib

HISTORY.

Account of the battle of Landshut 318
Motions of the French and allies 321
Defeat of the allies at Corbach ib
Affairs in the East-Indies 322
Defeat of the Dutch at Bengal, 323
Insurrection of the Negroes in Jamaica (cont.) 324
Affairs in N. America 325
Military operations near Quebec ib
Return of the killed and wounded 327
Affairs in England 328
A fire in the dock-yard at Portsmouth 329
Affairs in Scotland ib
Proceedings of the general assembly 330
British and French captures 335
Marriages, births, and deaths 336

GENERAL CONTENTS, for 1760.

JULY.

Reflections on the imperfections of our laws 341
Abstract of Ld George Sackville's defence 342
Essay on the coinage of Britain 348
Reflections on the peopling of America 350
History of Carolan, the last Irish bard 352
Preparations of Frederic I. for a croisade 353
Essay on the myrrhine cups of the ancients 355
Description of the island of Elephanta 357
Virtue and patience, the cure of adversity ib
A humorous letter from a gallant 360
Alteration in the colour of a Negro 361
Reflections on the present state of affairs 362
History of Miss Stanton, an affecting story 364
Description of the parish of Monymusk 367
An original manuscript on morality and religion 368

POETICAL ESSAYS

Fragment XII. of Highland poetry versified 369
A new version of fragment V. ib
The choice of a husband 370
The lady and caterpillar 371
The heroic fair ib
Address to the muses ib
The parliament of beasts ib
Ignorance 372
Lincolnshire roads ib
The terror of a chambermaid ib

HISTORY.

Part of Dresden destroyed and the siege raised 374
Defeat of the French at Emsdorff 375
——————at Warburg 377
Ruptnre between Portugal and Rome 379
Destruction of the Cherokees, &c 381
General assembly's address ib
Captures, marriages, births, deaths, &c 385
New books, with remarks and extracts 387

AUGUST.

Folly of general propositions in politics 398
On the enquiry into the murder of Darnley 400
Murder of Mr Matthews by Mr Stirn 401
Description of the country of Garioch 404
Humorous account of epidemic madness 406
Evidence against Ld G. Sackville, 408
On the proper enjoyment of life 413
Reflections on national prejudices 416
Cruelty of the Dutch to a Madurian King 417
Of the congelation of mercury 419
The manners, &c. of the Irish peasants 421
Dr Parson's cure for the bite of a mad dog 423
Dr. Figg's cure for the same 424
A third remedy for it ib

POETICAL ESSAYS

An ode to mirth 425
On music ib
On the new edition of Dr. Young's works 426
A pastoral song ib
The easy fair one 426
To a limner, drawing a spaniel 427
Dr Sea's harangue ib
To Mr W—— M—— ib
To Miss S—— ib
To Solitude 428
Epigram ib
On a Highland peble ib

HISTORY.

Prussian account of the battle of Lignitz 430
Austrian account of it 432
Account of the battle of Strehla 433
Loss of the British troops at Warbourg 434
Affairs in France 437
Gen. Yorke's memorial to the States General 438
Affairs in North America 439
Proceedings about supplying Edinburgh with water 442
Of the exorbitant wages of servants 443
Captures, marriages, births, deaths 443
Promotions 444
New books, with remarks and extracts 445

SEPTEMBER.

History of last session of parliament (cont) 449
Description of the parish of Leslie 451
The life of Mr James Hervey 453
Parallel between Horace, Boileau and Pope 458
Of the imprudent fondness of parents 460
Of the affections and pleasures of women 462
The temple of pleasure; a vision 465
On the various species and importance of wigs 466
A surprizing Arabic story 468
Reflections on the approach of winter 469
Manners, of the Negroes on the gold coast 470
Character of the inhabitants of the globe 472
Behaviour of Mr. Stirn 475
Account of an extraordinary Jesuit missionary 476
On the liberal slaughter of the British troops 478
Dr Ingram's cure for the bite of a mad dog 479
On the impregnation of mineral waters 480
Cure for the dropsy ib

POETICAL ESSAYS

An ode on masonry 481
Parody on Hamlet, by an attorney's clerk ib
Fragment ii. of Highland poetry versified ib
On the dissolution of man 482
The confession ib
To Felicia 483
A new song ib
On the Marquis of Granby ib
Description of a country-sessions 484
A song ib
The mansion modernized ib
On seeing a lady rise out of the bath ib
Epigram, on the defeats of the French ib

HISTORY.

Journal of the siege of Breslau 486
Austrian account of the battle of Strehla 489